SPONSORSHIP REQUEST

Aloha and congratulations on your assignment to Hawaii. And to answer one of your first questions, yes, the word Aloha is used a lot with tourists, and rarely with your fellow teenagers, but it is still a common term here. Most of the people at the Teen Center, youth as well as staff know what it's like to transfer in the military, start a new school, and get used to a completely different area. Please know that we are here for you and happy to help however you need us. If you will fill in the information below we will have a better idea on finding you a sponsor with similar likes and interests. You can find us on facebook under JBPHHTeenCenter. You can also give us a call and we'll answer any questions we can for you.
